

THE WORLD OF HOSPITALITY

INSPIRE, ECITE &amp; INFORM

PRODUCTS &amp; SERVICES

Graphenstone Collaborates with Michelle Ogundehin on New Collection

Graphenstone Purifying Paints, one of the most widely certified paint brands in the world has collaborated with Michelle Ogundehin, one of the most influential figures in British Interior Design on an edit of sixteen soothing paint shades. The new collection which launches from now, is designed for wellbeing and selected for ease. It is a compelling foundational palette.

The Michelle Ogundehin X Graphenstone Collection is a 'one stop palette' providing everything you need for a cohesive, considered selection of colours, deliberately designed so that all the colours work perfectly together.

MICHELLE OGUNDEHIN AT HOME WITH COLOURS FROM THE MICHELLE OGUNDEHIN X GRAPHENSTONE COLLECTION - DIRTY BROWNISH ON THE PANELS, DARK NAVY ON THE DADD TRIM, PALEST LEMON ON THE WINDOW REVEALS, DIRTY LAVENDER ON THE WALLS WITH TERRACOTTA ON THE LEFT OF PICTURE. CREDIT: ELLIS PARRINDER

"I wanted to create a relaxed, soothing palette that felt full of delight but never overwhelming. The core colours spring from the softer side of the green and blue families. However dirty touches stop it becoming too languid, and a dash of the unexpected adds that all important spice."

PRODUCTS & SERVICES

Graphenstone Paints A Different Carbon Future For The Hospitality Industry

IMAGE KKS SAVILLS/GRAPHENSTONE. PHOTOGRAPHY © TIMOTHY SOAR

Air-purifying paints can play a small but significant role for designers, brands, and specifiers in the hospitality industry seeking innovative and sustainable product solutions required to reach net-zero goals.